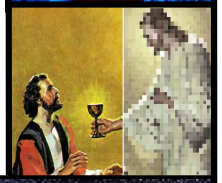
How do we do ministry in a digital age?



- what impact does digital culture make?
- what do we mean by presence?
- are there limits to digital engagement

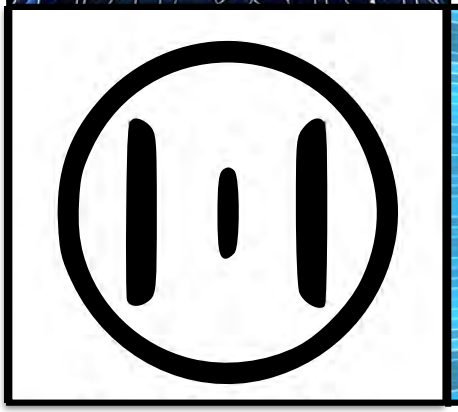
Presence in a digital age?

- no one knows you're a dog on the internet
- what happens in Vegas stays on YouTube
- online is simply a performance of a photoshopped self…
- there is no difference between offline and online - we are all mediating our presence all the time, always embodied, always real



Presence in a digital age?

- Marshall McLuhan - the Global Village
- Nancy Baym - absent…present…or both?
- Sherry Turkle - connected but alone
- Heidi Campbell - networked individualism or networked society
- Deanna Thompson - connected for good

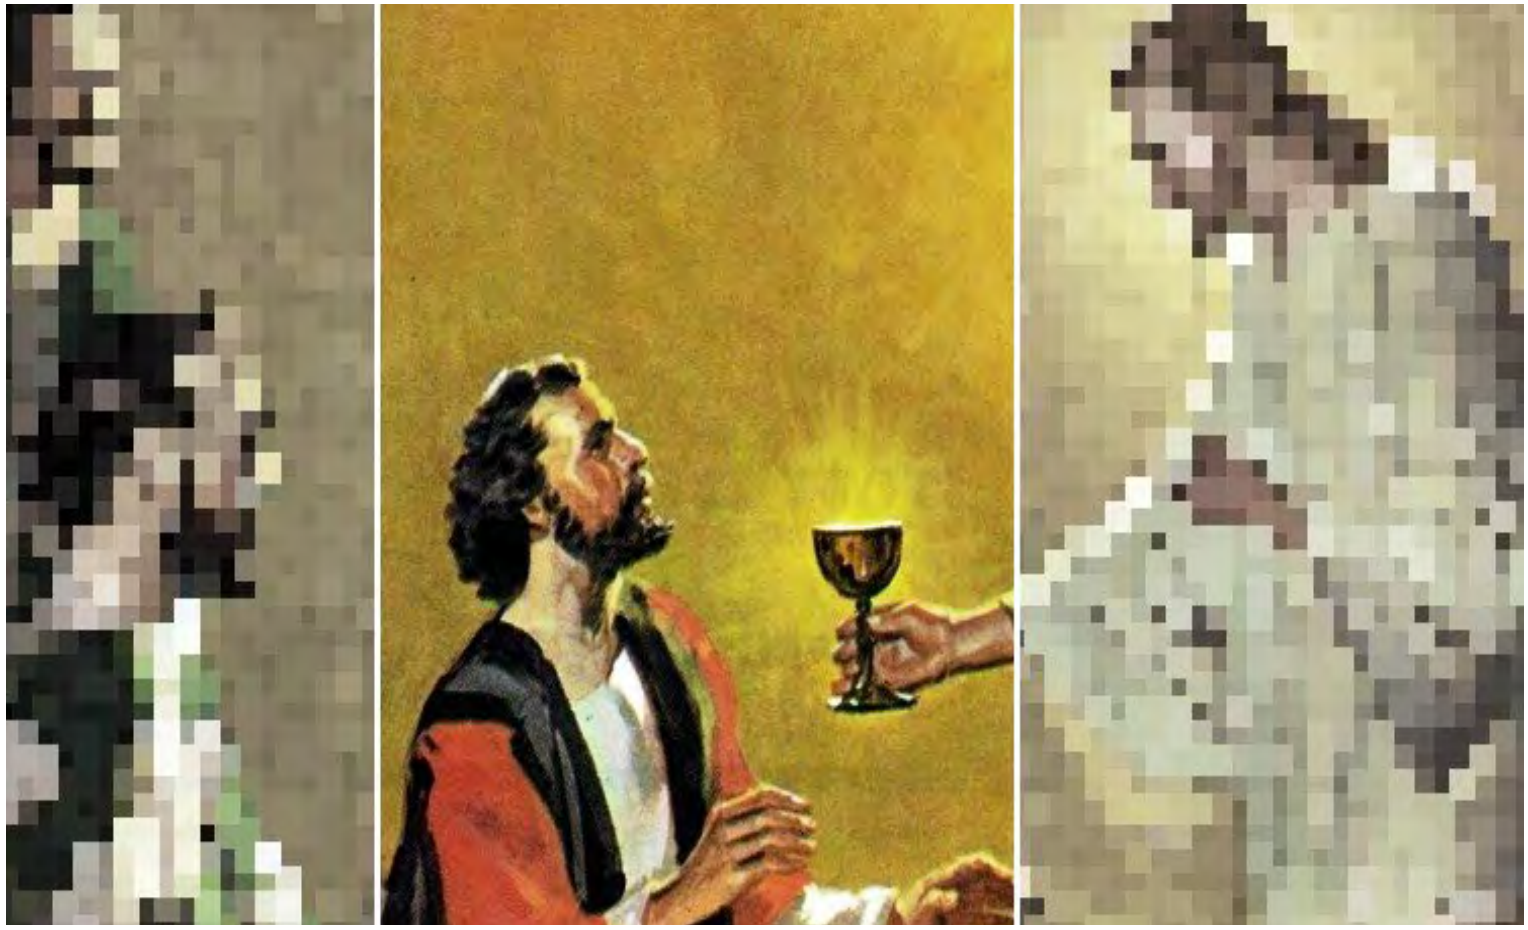
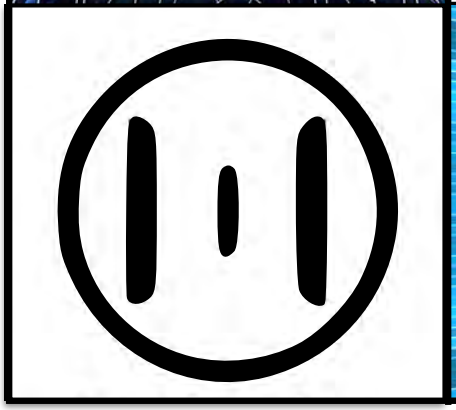
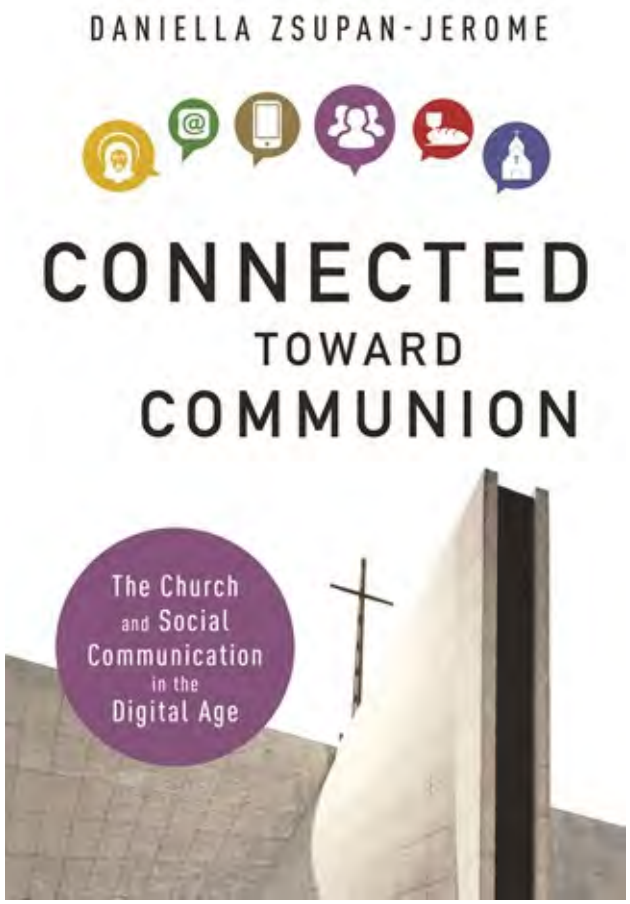
How do we do sacraments in a digital age?



Malta Discussion - Digital Theology and Mission



Online community - Daniella Zsupan-Jerome



- The Church has always been virtual
- Church Militant/Church Triumphant
- Eucharist as a timeless universalising sacrament

But Ed Stetzer:

“Real church needs real knees”

So here's my plan, I'm going to start sitting outside church one morning each week, starting next week, with this new sign that just arrived & a spare chair for passers by. What do you think? Remember it's London! Who thinks I can get at least 3 smiles & 2 "good mornings"? 😉 <><

First time trying this and it exceeded my expectations! 😆 84 "Good morning"s, 5 "hi"s, 3 waves, 6 smiles from headphone wearing people, 1 buenos dias and 16 chats - 1 of which lasted an hour! 😍 A wonderful morning connecting with the local community 😊 Bring on next week! <><
